SPECIAL ISSUE: Unity Music Festival

I first wrote about "The Helping Circle" back in 2006. It's simple... take a look at the words in the outer circle. How many different phrases can you come up with out changing the order of the words?

- ANSWER:
- You help!
 - Others Help
 - You Help Others!
 - Others Help You!
 - You Help Others Help You!
 - Others Help You Help Others!

I don't think there is a better way to describe the Local Cancer Community... and no better way to describe the Unity Music Festival... the NUMBER ONE Fundraiser of The Sheboygan County Cancer Care Fund!

Founded by local cancer survivor Mary Ann Waldbauer who was looking for a way to help cancer patients right here in our own community cope with the challenges of a cancer diagnosis... all of us have this opportunity to help her help others by helping her and her team of volunteers! And, in return, she helps all of us who attend with a great night of entertainment... and the funds generated help many cancer patients and survivors! See attached for details... and watch for a follow-up "Local Cancer Community Update" later this week!

Unity Music Festival: Music for Your Ears that Settles in Your Heart!

Saturday, April 8th, Showtime 7PM

Weill Center, 826 N. 8th St., Sheboygan

Don't miss out on the 13th Annual Unity Music Festival! There certainly is a reason that this event continues to grow after 13 years... and you can hear the reason as you enjoy the music and feel the reason knowing that you are supporting a great cause!

In a recent article appearing in the Sheboygan Falls News, Mary Ann Waldbauer describes this year's entertainment: "We have been so blessed with another great lineup. We have a very multi-talented soloist Allison Stauber, The Rice Family from Oostburg will be playing bluegrass, The Eldorados will be on hand playing 50s and 60s music and The Rick Raybine Band will do country. There certainly will be something for everyone." Mary Ann also refers to a "a never-before-done grand finale, which will be spectacular."

Area cancer patients recovering from the physical and financial challenges of cancer and cancer-related treatment have the opportunity to receive FREE tickets to the show for themselves and a guest, thanks to a generous donation from "A Postive Attitude." See attached for details!
